

Christmas Edition 2008

TAUBERSCHMIDT'S NEWSLETTER

Dear friends,

In May our daughter Marietta visited the village where she grew up. Her time with old friends was very special.

Marietta, Manuel & Grandma Alau

Reunion with Grandma Alau-- Marietta's big wish came true.

Lalau Vera, one of our first co-workers.

Marietta was happy to see him.
Just recently we received the message that he passed away.

Marietta had a great time in PNG

This year I again had the opportunity to go to South-Korea and teach New Testament Exegesis (mainly) for Bible translators at ARILAC (Asia Research Institute of Language and Culture), Handong University.

In Oct/Nov I taught Old Testament Exegesis in Papua New Guinea and visited some Sinaugoro and Kalo villages.

The Kalo translation team is eager to translate the Old Testament into their vernacular. The New Testaments in Kalo (2005) are already sold out.

This year Manuel graduated from high school (Abitur).

Merry Christmas and a happy New Year,
Gerhard, Hiltrud, Manuel and Marietta
